

National Hispanic Cultural Center Rental information

El Salón Ortega & Fountain Courtyard

The Salón Ortega is an intimate, warm, New Mexican setting, with hardwood floors, wood vigas and a beautiful stucco fireplace - perfect for nearly any gathering and directly adjacent to our beautiful fountain courtyard. This space accommodates between 120 and 380 people.

Grand Hall

The contemporary Grand Hall is extraordinarily flexible and can be transformed from a single large space to two or four smaller spaces—it is extremely versatile and a near blank slate for your imagination. As a full ballroom, the Grand Hall is ideal for large gatherings, particularly those that will include any staging or dance floors. The Grand Hall can also be complemented with the additional rental of the adjacent northern portion of the Pete Padilla and Manuel Mora Memorial Park. Alone, the Grand Hall accommodates between 80 and 340 people.

Cayetana Romero Lobby & Plazuela

The Cayetana Romero Lobby and adjacent Plazuela are at once tranquil, inviting and impressive. With vaulted ceilings indoors and a fountain outside, these venues are ideal for both receptions and seated dinners and events. These venues accommodate between 250 and 700 people.

Edward & Helen Condit Lobby & Terrace

Accessed through a tucked-away, gold elevator, everything about this space feels intimate and unique. The indoor portion of the lobby includes a bar that is perfect for beverage and food service and is adjacent to a covered patio area that overlooks the beautiful Plazuela downstairs. This venue accommodates 150 people.

Noskin Corridor

Located outside of the NHCC Art Museum, this majestic space is ideal for fluid gatherings and receptions. Available only in the evenings and on Mondays (when the Art Museum is closed), this corridor accommodates 150 people. It is best enjoyed with a supplementary rental/access to the Art Museum.

Lovelace/Sandia Corridor

With incredible ceilings and adjacent to both the southern portion of the Pete Padilla and Manuel Mora Memorial Park and the Bank of America Theatre, this corridor makes the perfect reception or medium dinner gathering space. The corridor accommodates 300 people.

Torreón

A small but magnificent space, the Torreón houses North America's largest concave fresco, which details the history of the Hispanic peoples from the Iberian Peninsula to Mesoamerica and the American Southwest. This space is best suited for a very small gathering, with an accompanying reception following elsewhere. The Torreón accommodates 20 people. Note: Food and drink are not permitted in the Torreón and a security guard is required to be in the venue at all times during the event.*

Multi-Purpose Reception Area

Open and welcoming, the Multi-Purpose Reception Area within the Pete V. Domenici Education Building is best suited for receptions and award ceremonies, particularly those open to the public. This space accommodates 110 people.

NHCC Art Museum Sculpture Garden

This open-air sculpture garden within the NHCC Art Museum is an intimate yet contemporary setting for your celebration. This space accommodates 100 people, with some limitations on availability due to its location within the Art Museum.

Pete Padilla & Manuel Mora Memorial Park

Newly completed, this beautiful outside space includes three distinct areas: (1) a formal setting with beautiful, framing artwork, perfect for a ceremony; (2) a lush park area and adjacent crushed-gravel space ideal for an informal, outside gathering; and (3) a low-profile stage and seating area surrounded by meadow and turf grass, for a more private ceremony. These spaces accommodate between 50 and 200 people.

Virginia & Edward Lujan Plaza Mayor

Expansive and open, the Virginia & Edward Lujan Plaza Mayor is the signature architectural gathering point within the NHCC's 20-acre campus. With ample, ideal locations for stages, tenting, and activities, the Plaza calls for activity and is a perfect location for your next grand event. The Plaza accommodates up to 2000 people.

Albuquerque Journal Theatre

This gorgeous theatre is ideal for dance performances, concerts and theatrical productions with medium-to-large audiences, as well as comedy performances and more. Seating 691 audience members and with full state-of-the-art lighting and sound equipment, this theatre allows for the most complex of events.

Bank of America Theatre

An inviting mid-size theatre, the Bank of America Theatre is a comfortable setting for concerts and film screenings, as well as lectures, symposiums and more. This theatre includes a new projector, but limited sound and lighting capability. The specifics of your event are important to discuss with your Rental Manager. The Bank of America Theatre seats 291.

Room 113

This cozy meeting space is nestled in the NHCC's History and Literary Arts building at the center of our campus and can accommodate up to 20 people.

Wells Fargo Auditorium

Our most intimate auditorium, Wells Fargo, is the perfect mix between theatre-style seating and intimate engagement between performers and audience members. It is ideal for theatrical productions and small musical concerts. This theatre also includes projection capabilities and seats 97.

Learning Labs

The NHCC includes one large Learning Lab, two medium Learning Labs, and two small Learning Labs. Each is a traditional classroom or seminar-type setting, with tables and chairs that can be adjusted to fit your meeting's style. The Learning Labs accommodate between 20 and 50 people.

Visual Arts Boardroom

Located within the NHCC's Administration area, this formal boardroom setting is ideal for group meetings or classes and includes a whiteboard and projection screen. The conference table seats 14, and the room as a whole can accommodate a total of up to 40 people.

Intel Classroom

Just off the NHCC's Plazuela, the Intel Classroom has computer capabilities and offers a quiet setting for your training, seminar, class or meeting. The classroom accommodates 40 people.